Office Operations Report

Mrs. Green explained that the office has resumed processing voter registrations for Douglas County. She noted that the process of updating and registering voters is paused during an active election, including runoffs for other counties, explaining that Douglas County had a backlog of around 4,800 registrations that has been worked down to around 2,000 as of the board meeting.

Director Kidd announced to the Board that he and Deputy Director Green attended a mandatory director's training for Douglas County on the 10th and 11th of December. On the 6th of December, he was invited to present before the legislative delegation and county officials, noting that he requested supplemental resources from the State level to conduct elections, noting that no other outside funding can be secured by local election offices.

Old Business

Director Kidd explained that legal counsel has reviewed compensation for similar-sized county Board of Elections and recommended that the Board vote to raise the stipend from $55 to $100 per meeting for Board Members and an increase to $155 per meeting for the Board Chair.

Mrs. Good requested a motion to vote to raise the Douglas County Board of Elections' stipend to $100 for Board Members and $150 for the Board Chair. Mr. Word made the motion and Mr. Evans seconded. Mrs. Good, Mr. Evans, and Mr. Word voted in favor of the motion and Mrs. Crochetiere abstained. The motion passed.

New Business

There was no new business to discuss.

Director's Concerns
